

This is the best proposal of the list. It opens the band for more use while retaining the Morse test. I wish that this had been enacted when I was first licensed, as VHF gear was scarce, and costly if not home-brewed. I am in favor of adopting this.